

SPEAK life!

I am so thrilled that you have joined us for Sisterhood Night. I want you to know that you are loved. Proverbs 4:22 says that God's words are life to those who find them, and health to the whole body. We can speak hope, peace, and encouragement, in the middle of our culture, in the midst of confusion, we can still speak life. We as women are meant to be part of God's presence on the earth. He wants to use us to speak life to our homes and communities. So I pray that is what you received tonight. Don't lose heart my friend. God is working, His love is unfailing, and His words are true.

*Much love,
Teri Gannon*

If you have experienced the loss of a loved one, your days can be especially difficult. You don't have to go through the process of grieving alone.
